'72 Lompoc Flower Fete off to roaring start

FEVERISH activity signals the start of Lompoc Flower Festival. Carnival patrons crowded the rides last night as members of Kiwanis Club and Lions Club (bottom photo) and friends began the arduous task of pasting thousands of colorful blooms on floats in Beattie's Ford garage to be ready for the big parade at 10 a.m. today.

Britain 'frees' pound; run started on dollar

LONDON (UPI) — Britain freed the pound to "float" to its natural level on world money markets Friday in a prelude to expected devaluation. The surprise move started a run on the dollar and endangered Italy's already weakened lira.

European financial experts at the Common Market in Brussels said the British action meant that the "Smithsonian Agreement" on a new world monetary system had broken down after just six months.

They warned that a dollar crisis could be next and would not rule out a second devaluation of the dollar in less than a year. The pound, which has hovered at around $2.60 since the 8-1-2 per cent U.S. devaluation in December, is expected to go to $2.40 later this year.

Major European money markets and some in Asia, Africa and Latin America closed in confusion, but not before the dollar had dropped in West Germany, Switzerland and

Weather

Fair through Sunday but patches of low clouds night and morning. Slightly warmer. Low temperatures in the 50s. High today and Sunday in mid 70s. West to northwest winds 10 to 20 miles-per-hour.

Sunday tides

High tides of 3.5 feet at 11:17 a.m. and 6 feet at 9:43 p.m. Low tides of minus 0.6 of a foot at 4:40 a.m. and 2.5 feet at 3:24 p.m.

Monday tides

High tides of 3.6 feet at 11:48 a.m. and 6.1 feet at 10:19 p.m. Low tides of minus 0.7 of a foot at 5:11 a.m. and 2.5 feet at 4:01 p.m.

France. The price of gold rose by $2.25 to $63.25 an ounce as suspicious speculators deserted fluctuating currencies.

The Italian government and the Bank of Italy denied they were considering devaluing the lira but Italian foreign exchanges closed for an indefinite period. The lira weakened Thursday from 585 to the dollar to 589, its heaviest setback since the Smithsonian agreement.

French Finance Minister Valery Giscard d'Estaing announced that the governors of the central (government) banks of the six present Common Market members — France, West Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg — would meet in Paris Saturday with Sir Leslie O'Brien, governor of the Bank of England, to discuss joint measures to defend sterling.

Hundreds of Lompoc Valley celebrants fresh from the Flower Festival grand opening last night drew a deep breath today as they headed into the festival parade and the first leg of the two-day event.

The grand opening in Ryon Park was an extravaganza, a three-ring circus and a tough act to follow.

Members of the California Cavalry Youth Band performed for more than two hours. Lompoc Mayor George Cotsenmoyer, Supervisor Francis H. Beattie and other dignitaries said brief hellos.

Fireworks crackled through the skies. Sounds of carnival rides mingled with the music and the pleasant sounds of people enjoying themselves.

Some booths did a brisk business in coffee sales and food products.

The area immediately surrounding the front of the band shell and stage was crowded with men, women and children for most of the early evening.

Greek Goddess Persephone carried a lighted torch to Festival Queen Renee Libonao and the fireworks followed closely thereafter.

Early this morning volunteer workers pushed completion of floats in a race to meet the 10 a.m. parade start deadline. Floats, marchers, musicians and equestrian units began to assemble on Pine Avenue near H Street. Police and other city crews prepared to block off streets leading into H Street.

Some early parade viewers were also established in street side vantage points.

First up is scheduled a prologue with Kick-off unit; and an "I Like Lompoc Banner; the Vandenberg AFB Color Guard; Grand Marshalls, VAFB officials and finally the Queen's float with Queen Renee Libonao ensconced on her throne.

Festival officials said all previously announced programs and schedules were on target. There was one late announcement: The first 600 youngsters who pass through the turnstiles for the matinee performance of the Helen Reddy concert will get in for $1 each instead of the regular admission of $3.

Hijacking drama in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—A bushy-haired man hijacked an American Airlines 727 jetliner Friday, ordered the plane to Fort Worth, Tex., and then turned back without explanation before he reached his goal.

The hijacker, reportedly armed, released all women, children and men with heart ailments at St. Louis, then circled Lambert Field for two hours before heading southwest. During that time, the FBI said, he demanded $502,000 ransom for the crew and 14 passengers left aboard.

An American Airlines spokesman at Greater Southwest International Airport said, "he is no longer coming in this direction." "Our guess is that he is going back to St. Louis, but we don't know."

"He changed direction and he doesn't know why they changed course. I don't know where they are going."

Forest area problem told

Los Padres National Forest Supervisor Robert G. Lancaster informed the Board of Supervisors today the problem of the Paradise recreation homes located in the national forest and the Forest Service program for acquisition of steep chaparral-covered, watershed-value lands fronting the Santa Barbara coastal area are "not related."

"Nor should a trade-off between them be attempted," he added in a letter to the supervisors.

Lancaster said he appreciated the recent action by the supervisors in "recognizing the critical problems involved in the land ownership patterns on the steep watershed lands behind the communities of Santa Barbara, Carpinteria, Montecito and Goleta." He referred to board action which could pave the way for possible Congressional funding to acquire the lands.

Lancaster's letter, he explained, was in part to clear up what "appears to be a misunderstanding."

Paradise leaseholders have sought to get Board of Supervisors' help in regard to the limited recreation use status put on the properties they lease in the Paradise area. There are 143 homes scattered over a 3½ mile area intermingled with five public campgrounds, the Los Prietos Ranger Station, Los Prietos Boys Camp and numerous open space day areas, and a two-room school with 31 children, eight from Forest Service housing.

Lancaster said about 75 per cent of the homes in the three tracts are occupied as principal residences, despite the recreation use leases.

He explained under criteria for land exchange as set up by the Forest Service there are complexities involving the lower Santa Ynez River area which has led Forest Service officers "to doubt that it is indeed in the long term public interest to exchange this land into private ownership."

The Paradise area involved, he said, is in a city watershed, is in a reclamation and recreation withdrawal area, and also is within an area providing mass recreation.

Meetings involving the Forest Service, county government and representatives of the homeowners have been held periodically to try to resolve the future of the Paradise area so far as present leaseholders are concerned.

Present permits run until 1984, and leaseholders are informed they can sell their properties only on the understanding they are to be used as recreation homes and not full-time residences.

New vice commander at VAFB

Colonel Miles C. Wiley Jr., will become vice-commander of the 1st Strategic Aerospace Division at Vandenberg AFB, effective today.

He will replace Colonel Eugene J. Crahen, who retires Tuesday. Colonel Crahen has held the vice-commander's position since Nov. 15, 1970.

Colonel Wiley comes to Vandenberg from an assignment as commander of the 44th Strategic Missile Wing, Ellsworth AFB, S.D. Prior to that he was vice-commander of the 321st Strategic Missile Wing, Grand Forks AFB, N.D.

This is a second assignment to Vandenberg for Colonel Wiley. He was assigned here in 1957 and participated in development of the Thor and Atlas systems.

Commissioned in 1944, Colonel Wiley subsequently was assigned to the 8th Air Force in England where he flew 31 combat missions.

Officials of the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts at Allan Hancock College today announced that all season tickets to the 1972 summer season of the conservatory have now been sold.

Thelma Frounfelter, business manager, expressed regrets to the many people whose applications for season tickets had to be returned because no more tickets were available.

Persons desiring to attend individual performances at dates between July 6 and August 20 may still purchase tickets generally on nights of their choice.

However, individual tickets, too, are going quite rapidly and people desiring to attend on a specific night are encouraged to get their tickets and make reservations early. Also, those season ticket holders who have not yet reserved their seats for the entire summer are cautioned that all remaining seats are selling rapidly and they are urged to call the box office immediately to make reservations, according to the business manager.

The Summer season, which begins July 5 with a special scholarship presentation of MY FAIR LADY, will feature five plays which will play in repertory nightly from July 5 through August 20. Other plays included in the summer billing are GEORGE M. SIX CHARACTERS IN SEARCH OF AN AUTHOR, THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ERNEST and CYRANO DE BERGERAC.

Tickets and reservations may be obtained by telephoning WA 2-8313 in Santa Maria, or by visiting the Music Box located at 1006 North H Street in Lompoc.

Oil ruling disturbs assemblyman

Assemblyman W. Don MacGillivray (R — Thirty Sixth District) today expressed his deep concern over the Federal Court decision of Wednesday, June 21, cancelling the suspension of oil drilling in the Santa Barbara Channel.

MacGillivray feels that a moratorium on oil drilling in the Santa Barbara Channel must remain in effect long enough to allow the oil companies to come up with a fail safe method to prevent the violation of aesthetic and scenic values of the coastal area.

Zoning 'in reverse' may launch precedent

By Dick Paul
County Reporter

Zoning in reverse — whereby residential zoning is turned into agricultural — is a rare occurrence in these days where screams of citizenry are directed against ever-increasing density requests.

But it was endorsed Thursday in an annexation case before the Local Agency Formation Commission.

The principals were the Goleta County Water District and rancher-attorney George Cavalletto, of Goleta Valley. Cavalletto's orchards have been recognized as outstanding in the field of land conservation practice.

LAFCO, with R. Lockwood Tower, of Montecito, sitting as chairman, unanimously approved the request of the petitioners to annex 83½ acres of the Cavalletto property to the water district. The property lies north of U.S. Highway 101 and west of Glen Annie Canyon Rd.

Cavalletto explained the "unusual conditions" attached to the annexation. He said the county previously had rezoned the 430-acre ranch, a portion of the old Hollister Ranch, from single-family estate to 40-acre limited agricultural district, so an agricultural preserve could be created.

The water district set as a condition of annexation a prohibition that no more than 350 acres could be granted irrigation water. Eighty acres will be left as natural open space, he said.

The annexed property is being prepared for lemon and avocado orchards and water will be used only for irrigation purposes, Cavalletto stressed.

"This is zoning backwards, and hopefully, it will prove to be a successful orchard," declared the attorney-rancher.

"I hope it will set some kind of precedent," he added.

"I hope so, too," declared Supervisor George H. Clyde, a LAFCO commission member, known for his support of conservation measures.

Chamber adopts resolution for widening Highway 246

At its bi-weekly meeting on June 21, the Lompoc Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors adopted a Resolution urging the State Division of Highways to widen State Highway No. 246 from Seventh Street to its intersection with State Highway No. 1 in Lompoc and to widen State Highway No. 1 from Robinson Bridge to Cebada Canyon to make the shoulders for a good two-lane road.

Copies of the Resolution were sent to the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors; Senator Lagomarsino; Assemblyman MacGillivray, District Engineer District 5, State Division of Highways; and the Lompoc City Council.

Also approved at the Board meeting was adoption of Resolution opposing the measures of Assembly Bill 1400 (Fenton). AB 1400 far exceeds requirements of OSHA (Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act), hitting California taxpayers with an estimated cost of $6.8 million annually all with intent of making substantial revisions of California industrial safety program.

Ballots for the annual Board of Directors election were mailed to all Chamber members on Monday, June 19. Ballots must be returned to the Chamber of Commerce office no later than 4:00 p.m. June 30. Results of election return will be announced July 3.

HE WAS HUNGRY

COLOGNE, Germany (UPI) — A 12-year-old boy caught with his loot after he and an older companion broke into a snack bar showed little respect for the forces of law and order, a police spokesman said.

The spokesman said the policeman left the boy alone in the charging room a moment and the youngster stole the officer's sandwiches from a pocket of his uniform and ate them.

'Plaza Suite' scored as hit

BY STEVE LA RUE
Staff Writer

The seats were a shade on the hard side but no one minded at all Wednesday night as the Lompoc Summer Playhouse opened with a score in Plaza Suite, a light comedy by Neil Simon. The performance launched a 10 week, seven play summer season including children's performances at the exquisitely redone Lompoc Civic Auditorium.

Plaza Suite is really three one act plays, each portraying a separate couple's visit to a suite at the Plaza Hotel and each focusing on love and marriage from a fresh comic angle.

In the first a couple's marriage founders in their honeymoon suite of years ago despite the woman's amusingly transparent ploys to again be noticed and loved. In the second an oily Hollywood producer seduces a tactically reluctant old high school date who is now married, and a middle aged married couple in the third get a bewildering glimpse of young love on their daughter's wedding day.

Brooke Masterson and Marty Drake, both professionals from Los Angeles, love and spar in the leads of these three yarns, and for her first stab at summer stock, Miss Masterson has found a calling. Her performances were steady and strong enough to cut through the first night audience fidgets, put the house at ease and maneuver smoothly into the comic high points. She was in control and that she was performing at all became impossible to discern as she melted into Karen Nash, Muriel Tate and Norma Hubley.

Miss Masterson's sharpest scene was the first, A Visitor from Mamaronek, as the greying Karen Nash in her hectic campaign to resuscitate a marriage falling prey to her husband, Sam Nash's self orbiting concern with growing old. Sam concentrates on his teeth, his pupils, his waist, a much younger secretary as in her salty New York accent, Karen hilariously tries to maneuver him to bed, to dinner, to a dirty movie. Self centeredness finally wins and Sam leaves though, by that time, he is the only male in the house who would.

The male lead is stronger in the third play and Drake shines as the tuxedoed and financially besieged Roy Hubley on his daughter's wedding day at the Plaza. Young Mimsey Hubley balks at the ceremony and the first persuasive argument that comes to Hubley's mind is his

Floods on rampage in East; Nixon declares disaster area

By United Press International

The most extensive floods in U. S. history rampaged through a vast area of the northeast Friday in the wake of tropical storm Agnes. President Nixon declared five states a disaster area.

At least 77 persons were dead in Agnes' destructive path - from Cuba through Florida and the Carolinas to New York. Damage was estimated at more than a billion dollars. More than a quarter of a million persons fled their homes.

In Pennsylvania, the raging Susquehanna River, 10 feet above flood stage, inundated the cities of Wilkes-Barre and Kingston, causing more than 200,000 persons to flee their homes. Floodwater poured through the state capital of Harrisburg. Five thousand National Guardsmen were called out.

In Virginia, the swollen James River flowed at a rate scientists said would not be equalled for 400 years. In Washington, the mighty Potomac rose toward a record crest.

Even as Nixon ordered the disaster designation for Florida, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and Virginia, more rain was forecast for parts of those states and West Virginia.

"We believe the flooding from the Gulf Coast to New York is the most extensive in the country's history," said Dr. Robert White, head of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. "It is certainly the largest flood of record."

President Nixon also ordered all available aid to the District of Columbia, where drinking water was threatened and the Senate adjourned early so senators could get across the cities' bridges before the Potomac reached flood crest.

Planner's agenda

Lompoc Planning Commission Monday will consider the following agenda items:

-Continuation of a hearing on request for rezoning to Planned Development Residential on 17.51 acres located between L and O Streets, and between Pine and North Avenues. Applicant is Ernest Auerbach Co., of Santa Monica.

-A report by the Community Development Director on renewal procedures for home use permits.

-Consideration of revocation of conditional use permit presently existing for operation of a retail nursery at 908 North H St.

-First consideration of proposals for a lot split on 13.71 acres located on the east side of H Street north of Skov Auto Parts.

-Presentation of implementation procedure for new sign regulations.

-Review of single family development at Seventh Street and Cypress Avenue.

-Review of budget for fiscal 1972-73.

-County referral on a proposed lot split located in the area of Bailey and Olive Avenues.

PARTICIPATING for the fourth year in the Federal Summer Employment Program for Youth, the NASA Kennedy Space Center, Western Test Range Operations Division has engaged six students from the Lompoc area for employment in its facilities at South Vandenberg Air Force Base. The program, instituted in 1965 as a special Presidential Program designed to provide job opportunities, has been enthusiastically received by students over the past four years. Receiving job orientation from Mrs. Grace Phillips (far left), KSC Administration Supervisor, in the KSC WTR Space Museum, are, from left, Mary Jane Balaam, Butte College; Tess Lujan, Lompoc High Senior; Richard Morales, Lompoc High Junior; Mary Hernandez, Hancock Student; Norma Castro, and Pat Alvarado, both Lompoc High Juniors.

Education measure signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Nixon signed a $19 billion higher education aid bill Friday but charged that the Democratic controlled Congress had provided rhetoric instead of a solution to the politically explosive court-ordered busing issue.

The legislation, containing the strongest curb yet on busing to achieve desegregation, will delay until the beginning of 1974 implementation of any judicial busing edicts still subject to appeal. The President had asked Congress for a moratorium on enforcement of all orders until July 1, 1973, and enactment of standards for school desegregation to make busing a last resort measure.

"Congress has not given us what we requested; it has given us rhetoric," Nixon said in a statement on busing released by the White House in announcing he had signed the three-year aid authorization bill.

"It has not provided a solution to the problem of court-ordered busing. It has provided a clever political evasion. The moratorium it offers is temporary. The relief it provides is illusory."

Later, the President indicated he intended to make busing a major campaign issue and said he would seek a constitutional amendment unless Congress approved his proposal before adjourning.

Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., chairman of the House-Senate conference committee that fashioned a compromise out of differing versions of the bill after about 10 weeks of work, returned Nixon's criticism.

"He just wants to keep the (busing) issue alive," said Perkins. "He played politics with it as far as he could and he's still trying to keep it up."

Prices on meat may be frozen

WASHINGTON (UPI)

—The Price Commission will meet Sunday to consider clamping a 30-day freeze on retail meat prices, to delay and possibly prevent another expected round of sharp boosts in supermarket beef and pork prices this summer.

Stymied by the Cost of Living Council's lack of action Thursday at a lengthy meeting at the White House, commission chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr., polled the six other members of his panel by telephone Friday to get their reaction to a meat price freeze.

Grayson called an unusual commission meeting at noon Sunday. Early Friday, one source said that "since the council didn't do anything, this freeze is very much on their minds." Later, after conferring further with commission officials, the same source said: "There are no plans to impose a 30-day freeze as of now."

Other sources indicated that while a freeze is still a possibility, it seemed less urgent than before President Nixon told an afternoon news conference Thursday that he was considering lifting quotas on foreign meat imports.

Nixon also said he would not rule out elimination of the price control exemption that raw agricultural products, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, have enjoyed since the wage-price freeze was imposed in mid-August.

Both steps were what Grayson had in mind Wednesday when he urged the Cost of Living Council, the policymaking arm of the administration's economic control machinery, to take "timely action" to curb soaring food prices.

$227 million given Amtrak

WASHINGTON (UPI)

—President Nixon signed legislation Friday granting Amtrak an additional $227 million to run the country's passenger train service through July 1, 1973.

The bill also gives Amtrak authority to borrow an additional $100 million with federal backing.

However, the new law puts a limit of $60,000 on the salary of any Amtrak official, meaning that Amtrak president Roger Lewis' present salary of $125,000 will be cut substantially.

There also are several service requirements in the bill including allocation of $2 million of the grant money to begin service to Canada and Mexico at Montreal, Vancouver and Nuevo Laredo. Amtrak also is brought under the Freedom of Information Act and required to make monthly reports to Congress and the public on its performance and finances.

Mutual sheriff aid doubted over decision

By Dick Praul

The verdict of the County Civil Service Commission in restoring dismissed Sheriff's Capt. Joel B. Honey to duty with an almost clean record is believed to have cost the Sheriff's Department any future mutual aid from neighboring counties in the event of civil disorders or other emergencies.

Reports emanating from the National Sheriff's Association convention in Palm Springs were to the effect the sheriffs of Ventura and San Luis Obispo have determined Honey's return to duty will preclude them from helping the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's forces in emergencies.

Sheriff John W. Carpenter, who attended the convention, indicated today he will report on the situation Monday before the Board of Supervisors. He said it would be premature at this time to disclose the nature of his report.

Carpenter said his report to the supervisors will also deal with the question of a possible appeal of the Honey decision to the courts, along with the matter of Honey's new duties at this time.

It was learned that Ventura Sheriff Bill Hill, who heads the regional mutual aid setup comprising the Tri-Counties, and Sheriff Larry Mansfield, of San Luis Obispo County, have now reiterated they cannot see fit to extend mutual aid to Santa Barbara as in the past as a result of the Honey situation.

Los Angeles County, which has extended mutual aid to Santa Barbara in the past during the Isla Vista disorders, is in another region now with Orange County, and is precluded from sending officers here in emergencies, it has been shown.

Israeli force hits Lebanon once again

By United Press International

Israeli jets and artillery pounded Arab guerrilla bases in Lebanon for the second time in three days Friday in attacks guerrilla leader Yasser Arafat said were part of a "cunning Zionist plan" to trigger an Arab civil war.

Arafat urged concerted Arab action against the Israelis and American interests in the Middle East to counter the raids.

Lebanese officials in Beirut said the Israeli planes also fired on guerrilla bases in neighboring Syria, but Israel denied the report.

In New York both Lebanon and Israel asked for an urgent meeting of the United Nations Security Council to consider the border strike.

Communiques from Lebanon and the Palestinian guerrillas claimed at least 18 persons were killed and 12 wounded in the attack on Dier El Achayer, 19 miles inside the cease-fire line between Israel and Lebanon and 45 miles east of Beirut.

The Israeli action followed guerrilla rocket attacks on the border settlement of Kiriath Shmona and an Israeli post on the Golan Heights.

The attacks followed by two days Israeli air, land and artillery strikes on guerrilla bases in southern Lebanon which left up to 60 commandos dead and resulted in the capture of five ranking Syrian army officers visiting the area.

Premier Golda Meir of Israel said the raids on southern Lebanon were ordered "to protect the lives of our people."

Nixon confers on China visit

WASHINGTON (UPI)

—President Nixon gave a personal send off to two House leaders on their trip to China Friday and then conferred with his adviser, Henry A. Kissinger, who just returned from Peking.

Kissinger, Nixon's national security adviser, conferred with the President and Secretary of State William E. Rogers within minutes after completing his mission to China and five days of secret talks with Premier Chou En-lai.

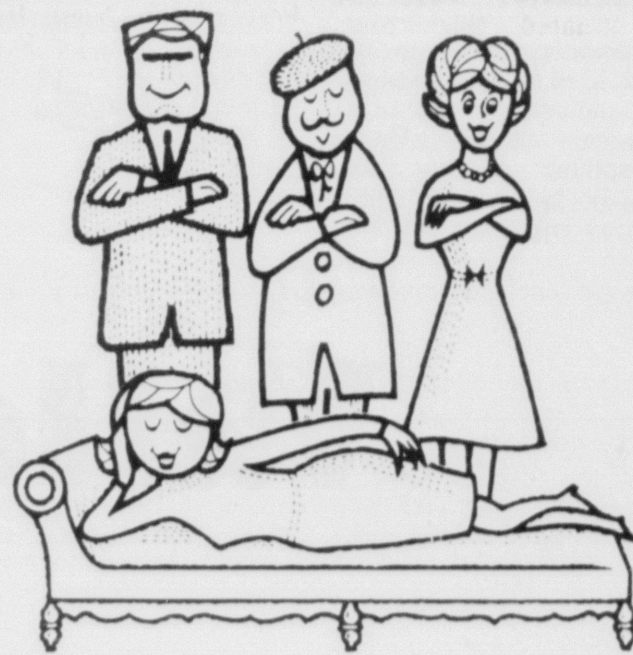

Kissinger met with Rogers and Nixon for an hour and a quarter and then accompanied the President to Camp David for the night.

Busy calendar set at Bible Baptist

A record number of activities and times of fellowship have been scheduled this week at Bible Baptist Church. These included churchwide visitation on Tuesday evening, midweek prayer on Wednesday, and ladies visitation on Thursday morning. That evening adults enjoyed a spaghetti dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Allen. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dobbins who leave shortly for South Carolina. Young people of the church visited Magic Mountain on Friday evening.

Activities continue tomorrow with Sunday School at 10 a.m. All classes will continue study on the life of Christ. "Who is Just?" will be title of the pastor's message at the 11 a.m. worship. Junior Church is available for children up to fourth grade. Bus transportation is provided for the morning service.

Planned for Sunday afternoon for members of the church is an open house at the home of their pastor, The Rev. S.W. Christian.

Evening services begin with training hour at 6 with classes for all age groups. Adults will continue their study in the book of Peter. Evening worship is at 7. The pastor will bring a message entitled "What Did Jesus Teach?"

The day will conclude with a time of Christian fellowship at the church following the services, when members will bid the Paul Dobbins family farewell.

United Church to observe anniversary of founding

Celebrated Sunday during coffee hour at the Valley of the Flowers United Church will be the ninth anniversary of its recognition service and installation of its pastor, The Rev. Richard E. Harris. Diane Olafson will provide the cake at the 11 a.m. fellowship. The same day is the 15th anniversary of the formation of the United Church of Christ from the merger of the Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

St. Mary's class studies command

A class to facilitate Christ's command "love one another," begins at St. Mary's Episcopal Church this Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Called "Tools for Creative Relationships," it will be a two hour session running for five weeks.

This class is open to any interested persons. Further information and sign up through the Church office, 6-2311, 9 a.m. to noon weekdays.

Adult education is a vital part of the St. Mary's program and is open to all interested persons, regardless of Church affiliation.

The local church each Sunday at 9 a.m., with study in the pastor's study on Acts of the Apostles.

"Rebecca's Courtesy is Rewarded" is title of the pastor's sermon in the 10 a.m. worship. "Let's Water Some Camels" is title of his children's story.

The Harris bus leaves at 1 p.m. Sunday with children and youth bound for Pilgrim Pines Camp in the San Bernardino Mountains near Yucaipa, returning the following Saturday. Pastor Harris will spend the week in Pasadena attending a training workshop on Parent Effectiveness Training (PET) by Dr. Gordon, author of a book by that name. PET courses will be offered this fall for those interested. Rev. Harris will be only the second person in Santa Barbara Co. to be trained by the parent organization, which tries to keep tight control on those who teach. Margaret Solomon of Santa Barbara is the only other listed at Effectiveness Training Associates headquarters in Pasadena.

Sermon title asks question

"Everyone Deciding What is Right" is title of the sermon by The Rev. W.B. Timberlake this Sunday at 11 a.m. in First Southern Baptist Church. Music for both morning and the evening service will be led by Craig Cox. The church choir will sing a special hymn-anthem at both times.

"The Temptation of Jesus" is title of the evening sermon. It will be the first of a series on temptations Jesus had.

Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. is under direction of Carl Wood and a faculty of 70 adult leaders in all ages from nursery to the oldest adult. Sunday evening training union hour will meet at 6 in age groupings to discuss elements of church membership.

Next week will see special prayer meetings for the upcoming Bible Costume Monologues presented by Frank Halbeck of Reseda. He will portray Moses, Abraham, and other old and new testament characters beginning Sunday, July 2, continuing nightly through July 9.

Chaplain Ingram is speaker at Calvary

Chaplain Austin Ingram, Protestant chaplain at the Federal Correctional Institution, will be guest speaker this Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church, Vandenberg Village. He will preach at both the morning service at 11 and the evening service at 6. The chaplain's positive and helpful presentations will provide a unique opportunity for help in understanding and living the Christian life.

A Youth Outreach Ministry will be carried on this week by a group of young people from Calvary under the direction of Youth Pastor Fred Niegocki. The young people will go to Guadalupe for five mornings of Children's Club meetings, and for three evenings of Teen Clubs. This is one of the ways the young people of Calvary will be sharing their faith on a person-to-person basis during the summer.

Guest music director for the summer is George Pritchard, senior at Bethel College in St. Paul. George is a music major, and long-time member of Calvary Baptist Church.

Methodists slate youth fellowships

The Rev. Robert Montgomery, pastor of the United Methodist Church, will conduct family services at 9 a.m. and preach at the 10 a.m. worship. The Jr. Hi United Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the Lompoc High School baseball field at 7 p.m. Sunday under direction of Greg Thorson.

A bicycling group of youth from Chula Vista will spend Tuesday night in Lompoc. Local youth will join them for a 6 o'clock dinner at the church and a later swim at the municipal pool.

Rev. Montgomery will continue the Bible Study class on Thursday evening at 7:30 beginning with a brief sacrament of Holy Communion.

Next Friday at 7:30 p.m. all college age students are invited to the church for an informal time of refreshment and discussion on possibility of an on-going group. This year's high school graduates are included.

The First United Methodist Church is located at 925 North F St.

Presbyterian title is told

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed tomorrow morning at the 9:30 a.m. service of worship in First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Kenneth R. Boyd, will lead the service, speaking on the topic, "Demands of Discipleship." Church School is also at 9:30 a.m.

There is child care for smallest children during the service.

Junior and Senior High young people will leave after the service for an outing at Rest Haven. There will be no evening activity at the church. Boy Scout troop 63 meets on Monday at 7:30 p.m. Senior high Bible study is scheduled through the summer for Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the church and in various homes of the parish. Recovery, Inc., a self-help group for nervous persons, meets each Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the church. The Chancel Choir will rehearse Thursday at 8 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church is located at 1600 Berkeley Drive.

Pastor speaks on miracles

Using 11 Corinthians 4:1-18 as a scriptural basis, The Rev. William J. Denton of First Christian Church will preach Sunday morning on the subject "On Believing in Miracles." Worship hour is at 10:30 a.m. Nursery care is provided during this hour.

Sunday Church School for all age groups begins at 9:15 a.m.

Christian Men's Fellowship will meet in monthly dinner session Tuesday evening. E. Ralph Adamson will be in charge of the program. Vic Urban, chief parole officer at FCI, will be the guest speaker. Merle Decker will present the worship portion of the evening.

Evangelist continues his crusade

"The Miracle Worker of Trinidad" will be the topic of the Rev. Rick Davis Sunday evening at the First Assembly Of God Church. An evangelist, he has been conducting "Spiritual Discovery Crusades" across America. He will continue to speak at the church nightly at 7 o'clock through July 2. Monday evening his subject will be "Exposing Witchcraft." Tuesday his message is titled "The Great Charismatic Awakening."

Rev. Davis' ministry includes an emphasis on faith and healing. Pastor Otis Hubbard and his congregation invite everyone to come "experience the miracle working power of God in his life."

Attend the church of your choice

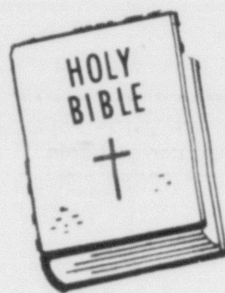

Christian Science tells Sunday topic

"Christian Science" is title of the lesson sermon comprising a major part of the Christian Science Service this Sunday. The theme is found in the text from Jeremiah: "I will put my law in their inward parts and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people."

Citations from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, include this statement: "Whoever would demonstrate the healing of Christian Science must abide strictly by its rules, heed every statement and advance from the rudiments laid down. There is nothing difficult nor toilsome in this task, when the way is pointed out, but self-denial, sincerity, Christianity, and persistence alone win the prize, as they usually do in every department of life."

Sunday Service is at 11 a.m. in First Church of Christ Scientist, 210 South H St. The public is welcome.

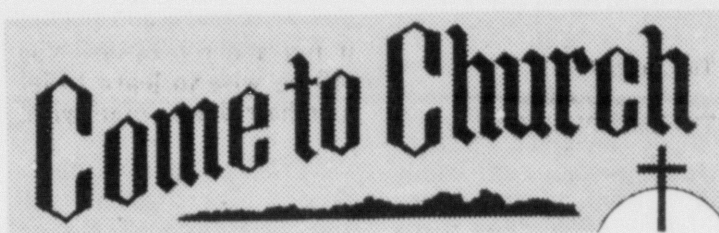

Aaronic benediction is theme at Peace

The Aaronic benediction from the book of Numbers will be the sermon theme of Rev. David Miller at Peace Lutheran Church this Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. service. Title of the meditation is: "Lord Dismiss Us With Thy Blessing."

For the first four weeks in July Pastor Miller and family will be on vacation. The following pastors will fill the pulpit on those Sundays. On July 2 Holy Communion will be celebrated with the Rev.

Fred Tonsing leading worship. Rev. Tonsing is presently a PHD student in religious studies at UCSB. On July 9 the Rev. Otto Bremer, the campus pastor at UCSB, will lead the service. On July 16 the Rev. Harald Knudsen, a retired Danish pastor now living in Lompoc, will be our worship leader. Finally on July 23 the Rev. Fred Tonsing will return to the pulpit of Peace. On July 30, the last Sunday, in July, Pastor Miller will return to lead worship once again.

WOULDN'T YOU KNOW IT: WHAT APPEARS PERMANENT MAY SOON DISAPPEAR!

SATURDAY, JUNE 24 — Born today, you are a curious, acquisitive person who will want to discover and absorb all the knowledge possible in the course of a single lifetime. It is doubtful, of course, whether you will be able to fulfill your ambition along these lines — but there is absolutely no doubt that you will always stand ready to enlarge your intellectual horizons in whatever ways and through whatever means are made available to you. Nor are you insistent in any way upon speed of acquisition; you are content to spend a lifetime at it.

You probably knew very early in life what you wanted to gain most out of it and you probably developed with a remarkable consistency very soon thereafter the determination it takes to fulfill your goals. The only thing that may prove a drawback to your general success is your inclination to brook no compromise, and it is to be hoped, therefore, that time will soften the firm outlines of your decisive nature so that you will ultimately be able to make necessary adjustments to existing circumstances.

Because you tend to take life very seriously, you may well miss much in the way of fun and relaxation. You will be wise to learn to let your hair down; otherwise, you may find as the years pass by that you have become altogether too businesslike to enjoy your social relationships or the hours of leisure-time activities that go with them. To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Sunday, June 25
CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Don't take too seriously any criticism of your work that comes through the family today. There may be motives you know nothing about.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Take care that all work and no play doesn't make this a Sunday family and friends would rather forget. Lend a spiritual hand to one in trouble.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Morning worship highlights your ability to put yourself in another's shoes. Pay close attention to the words of a sermon this morning.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Your own affectionate nature should be enough to reassure another as to your real feelings. Don't hesitate to reveal your likes and dislikes.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Plan your strategy carefully and you should have little trouble persuading the family to support you in new directions for the future.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—You can achieve much today in the way of a spiritual uplift if you will pay close attention to your conscience. Attend another's needs.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Guard against taking things too seriously today. Now is the time to begin consciously to enjoy your accomplishment in several lines of work.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Though you may be unwilling to compromise your principles, you must make the adjustment necessary to meet the day's circumstances. Find a way.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)—Knowledge gained in the recent past should come to your aid today. Where friends cannot assist you, you should find your own talents quite adequate.

ARIES (March 22-April 20)—Not a good day for trying to make gains through the use of diplomacy. Take the direct approach; ask for what you want in no uncertain terms.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Enjoy your contact with others this morning. In weeks to come you will be glad if you spent this Sunday cultivating new friends.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Don't be timid about expressing yourself to a member of the opposite sex. Where romance is concerned, it may well be now or never!

A scientist endeavors to replace appearance by facts. A bridge player should try to replace a probability by a sure thing any time he has that opportunity.

You can see that West holds exactly two clubs including the queen. After all, the four hands are right in front of you.

Declarer can't get this look, but this time he doesn't need it. Good play can show him the club situation just as surely as if he were looking at all four hands.

West cashes two heart tricks and leads a third one to kill dummy's queen. East ruffs and South overruffs.

South leads a club to dummy's king and tries the trump finesse. West gets his

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In the presidential campaign this year, many of the routine chores traditionally performed by volunteer workers have been taken over by computers.

There are computers that crank out "personalized" form letters soliciting contributions or votes.

Other computers make follow-up telephone calls featuring recorded messages from the candidates.

Some computers even operate on the policy level, supplying the candidates with information on voting trends and population shifts.

This helps them avoid technical mistakes, such as sampling the wares of a sidewalk pizza vendor while campaigning in a Polish neighborhood.

And I'm sure it must have occurred to several of the candidates that a computer would make an ideal vice presidential running mate.

Perhaps the electorate isn't yet ready to accept an automated veep, but the advantages it would offer are readily apparent.

It is no secret, for instance, that one or more candidates for the Democratic nomination would like to have Sen. Edward Kennedy on the ticket.

Kennedy, however, has launched a vigorous campaign to avoid being tapped for the vice presidential slot.

Earlier in the year, you'll recall, Kennedy was spending about 65 per cent of his time not running for president. It now appears that pursuit of vice presidential unavailability will be equally demanding.

Assuming that he succeeds in staying out of the race, this would be a perfect spot for the computer.

A computer could be programmed with all of the traits that presumably endear Kennedy to certain voters. But it would not be held accountable for things Kennedy might have done that offended certain other voters.

Dr. Luigi V. Populi, the noted political analyst and waterwing tycoon with whom I discussed this matter, believes a computer would be an asset to the Republican as well as the Democratic ticket.

"Nixon could program his computer along John Connally lines," he pointed out. "That would appease the 'dump Agnew' crowd without raising a party-switching issue."

But Populi feels the main advantage of having a computer for a running mate would be the post-election convenience.

"With just one simple adjustment, the President could prepare the computer to carry out the duties of the vice president.

"All he would have to do is pull the plug."

Dear Abby

Next time, serve him a baked potato

DEAR ABBY: I recently married a widower with a 13-year-old son. Last night I served roast turkey with mashed potatoes and gravy. There were just the three of us. David (that's not his name) started to put his fingers in the mashed potatoes, making "road maps, and rivers and valleys."

I told him it wasn't good manners to put his fingers in his food or play with it. He didn't talk back to me, but he looked at his father for support, and his father said, "It's okay to eat however you want at home, as long as you remember your manners when you eat out or have company over."

David brightened up and continued to make road maps, etc. in the mashed potatoes with his fingers.

You can see, Abby, my husband is the boss and what he says goes.

I told him I was going to write to you and ask how you felt about this and he said, "Go ahead. I'll bet she says I'm right."

Well, what do you say?

ANONYMOUS, PLEASE

DEAR ANON: Your husband loses. First, David is much too old to be playing with his mashed potatoes, but more important he should not be allowed to play the "divide and conquer" game, which appears to be what's happening at your house. You and your husband had better get on the same team — fast.

DEAR ABBY: This is my first job and I am ready to climb the walls. I am in a one-girl office with 18 men including my boss. Everything I do or wear causes comments from the men. If I wear a colorful print, someone says, "Where's the party?" If I wear black, they say, "Where's the funeral?" If I wear a short skirt, I hear, "Wow, look at those gams!" If I wear pants, someone says, "Hi, Sam!"

The money is good and I have to work, but I get so nervous from all the remarks around here, I'm a wreck. Can you help me?

SENSITIVE: DEAR SENSITIVE: Learn to tune 'em out, or develop a thicker skin. Chances are, they're just being friendly.

DEAR ABBY: I have an explanation for your male reader who said women knit in company to give them something to think about while they're talking.

I learned to knit to give myself something to think about while my husband was talking, which he did incessantly.

MEG FROM MINONK

DEAR MEG: Touche. You're great with the needle!

Sells 'em all: NYKOBING FALSTER, Denmark (UPI) — — Volmer Soerensen sold so many tickets for his summer revue that he asked the critics to stay at home. "I don't want the show spoiled by sour criticism in the newspaper next day. Advance sales have been so good that I also sold tickets reserved for the critics," he said.

Education notes

By VAUGHN PROCTOR Education editor

Education notes appeared irregularly during the school year just ended and far fewer times and with considerably less frequency than originally planned.

The major reason for this failure if you want to call it that was the scarcity of material. A couple of years ago when the Record's special, and many say highly convenient education reporting form came into being it was planned to run the column every two weeks or perhaps every week. That never came about.

In many cases the logistics of getting the forms to those most likely to have a use for them broke down. Many teachers don't know to this day that the form is here for the asking.

There may be some, also who question the idea of having their little education happenings tucked away in a column of this sort. One of the truths of this business is that too often a teacher or an administrator will think in terms of a picture or two and a spread of a column of type to go along with it.

Experience has shown that not every bit of education information merits this type of treatment. It also works to the disservice of some items. There is only so much room in each issue. If every item were covered in pictures and a column of type or even a half column the articles would be standing in line for a year before they could be printed. Where the fuller treatment was justified that was done.

There is also another problem that might as well be aired here. Some months ago I talked with a principal about a program that seemed ideal for fuller treatment. I got wound up on it and time passed. The material was to be sent to me, I was to take some pictures and do what we all thought would be a good little piece.

Then it happened. The material had come in, got side tracked for whatever reason and wound up in a little three-inch story just as it was written by the school people. That killed that idea right there. Material has to be directed properly.

On another occasion I spent a couple of hours with four or five teachers discussing a highly innovative program about to be initiated. The teachers were to call me when they had some of the critical details worked out. Then too, it happened. The story appeared on the teen page in something less than the high purpose that had originally been discussed. The teachers involved either forgot to call me or they had other ideas.

Early in September, I will hand carry the education reporting form to every school, personally. In addition I will visit schools on a rotation basis, spacing the visits at a frequency of about one school a week just to talk briefly with anyone who wants to talk with me

Football season opens

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI)—Temperatures will be in the 90s when they kick off the 1972 football season Saturday night, and by the time the fourth quarter gets here Chuck Fairbanks figures the winner might simply be the team that can stay on its feet.

The occasion is the 12th annual Coaches All-America game, the first of too many to count football games between now and the end of January, and it serves as a showcase for the leading 1972 professional rookies. Or at least some of them.

Only eight of the 26 first round professional draft choices will be competing in the game, and just two of the first 10 picks—tackle Lionel Antoine of Southern Illinois (picked by Chicago) and defensive back Willie Buchanan of San Diego State (selected by Green Bay) will be on hand.

In addition to that, each squad is limited to 30 players, and Fairbanks, the head coach at Oklahoma who will guide the West, thinks that might not be enough.

AL: Ryun, Oliver lead Angels' win

OAKLAND (UPI) —Bob Oliver's two-out home run in the ninth inning, the first off previously unbeaten rookie Dave Hamilton, lifted the California Angels and Nolan Ryan to a 2-1 win Friday night over the Oakland Athletics.

Ryan, now 7-5, gave up only two hits—a 475-foot bases empty home run to Reggie Jackson in the first and a harmless single by Dave Duncan in the seventh inning. Jackson's blow again tied him for the American League leadership in home runs with Detroit's Norm Cash at 14.

Ryan struck out 10 while walking four and had only one serious jam. With men on first and third and two out in the sixth, he retired Sal Bando

NL: Huge crowd cheers Dodger win

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Frank Robinson hit the 513th homer of his career in the sixth inning with two out and Willie Davis aboard on a double Friday to bring Los Angeles a 2-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves before 53,107, largest Dodger home crowd of the season.

The homer was Robinson's 10th of the season and it took him out of a tie for eighth place on the all-time homer list with the retired Eddie Mathews and Ernie Banks.

The blow broke up a pitching duel between Al Downing and Phil Niekro. Downing allowed five hits and struck out four without walking a man to gain his fourth win in seven decisions. Niekro also gave up five hits and fanned four as he took the loss that makes his record 7-6.

Downing was in serious trouble only in the seventh inning when he loaded the bases on three consecutive singles with none out. But Sonny Jackson hit into a double play on which Rico Carty scored and the Braves could muster no more hitting.

Each team collected two singles in the third inning. Niekro got the first Brave hit with two out and Felix Millan laid down a bunt single but Ralph Garr grounded out. In the Dodgers third, Bobby Valentine beat

Quarry takes a rest

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Jerry Quarry laid off boxing Friday in training for his scheduled 12-round bout with Muhammad Ali, who went six fast rounds with three sparring partners.

Quarry's trainer, Teddy Benham, said the California heavyweight does not need any more sparring and scoffed at the idea that a cut he received in boxing two days ago was serious.

"The cut was nothing," said Benham. "The newspapers made a mountain out of a molehill. He doesn't need to box. He's been boxing since January."

Nevertheless, doubters point out that in their only previous meeting, Ali beat Quarry, who failed to answer the bell for the fourth round because of an eye cut.

Ali said, "I don't want to win the fight on a cut. I hope he's all right."

In answer to a question, the former Cassius Clay admitted Quarry may be physically stronger than he is.

"If it came to arm wrestling, he probably could beat me," said Ali. "But I am more skillful, scientific, creative and artistic. It does not matter how hard he hits. I do not get hit often."

"The thing that could hurt us, both teams, is a lack of depth," Fairbanks said.

"We are limited to only 30 players, and this time of year it is hard to play with just 30 guys. One thing out here, though. It cools off pretty quickly after the sun goes down."

The only trouble, however, is that it won't get really dark until about midway through the second half.

The game, played for the third year at Jones Stadium on the campus of Texas Tech University, has an 5:30 p.m. PDT kickoff and will be nationally televised. A crowd of 44,000—capacity—is expected.

Despite the absence of some big names—including top draft picks Walt Patulski of Notre Dame, Sharman White of California, Bobby Moore of Oregon and Riley Odoms of Houston—there will be talent on display. And the majority of the big names on hand will be playing for the West.

Fairbanks will get to choose at quarterback between the players who led the nation's top two teams on an infield out.

Hamilton, who had won his four previous starts since being called up from Iowa in late May, limited the Angels to one unearned run before Oliver's game-winning blow, the Angel first baseman's ninth of the year.

It was the first home run off the young Oakland southpaw in his 36 1-3 innings. Despite the losing effort, it was Hamilton's first complete big league game.

The first Angel run came in the third inning when Art Ksunyer led off with a single and advanced to second on Angel Mangual's error. Hamilton, who fanned eight, then struck out Ryan and Sandy Alomar but was touched for an RBI single by Ken Berry.

Local shorts

The Lompoc American Legion Baseball team goes into its second week of action today and tomorrow. The locals will meet Arroyo Grande today at 2 p.m. at Lompoc High, then travel to Atascadero tomorrow. Lompoc has won the District 16 championship three years running, and is 1-1 this year. Starting pitcher today will be either Dennis Hall or Bob Aguilar. Results in Monday's paper.

Maggie Knickrehm and Beckie Zeigler, local members of the Lompoc Valley Girls Track Club, were scheduled to compete in a national competition this weekend, but have scratched from the meet due to injuries, according to team coach Maury Sipes.

last season, Jerry Tagge of Nebraska and Jack Mildren of Oklahoma.

Bear Bryant of Alabama, has first-round choices Royce Smith, an offensive lineman from Georgia picked by New Orleans, Tom Darden, a defensive back from Michigan taken by Cleveland, Mike Taylor, a linebacker from Michigan selected by the New York Jets and Antoine.

Bryant's quarterbacks will be Paul Miller of North Carolina, who was not selected in the player draft, and Tennessee State's Joe Gilliam, who went in the 11th round to Pittsburgh.

Olympic swim tuneup

SANTA CLARA (UPI) — World record holders Mark Spitz and Brian Job, both solid gold-medal candidates for the Olympic Games, set meet records Friday on the opening program of the three-day Santa Clara International Invitational Swim Carnival.

Swimming in a pool a lot colder than usual because of a heater breakdown, Spitz took the 100-meter freestyle in 52.4 and Job won the 200-meter breaststroke in 2:25.5.

Both admitted they were just rounding into peak form and were about ready for the Olympic Trials at Chicago Aug. 1 and the Olympic Games in Munich Aug. 26.

Bobby Hull to WHA

WINNIPEG, Man. (UPI)—Superstar Bobby Hull of the Chicago Black Hawks is expected Tuesday to sign a contract worth nearly $3 million with the Winnipeg Jets of the newly formed World Hockey Association, a spokesman for the team said Friday.

"We expect Bobby to sign Tuesday," said Jets spokesman Annis Sturkis. "Arrangements are being made for him to be in Winnipeg Tuesday morning for a chartered flight to WHA headquarters in Minneapolis-St.

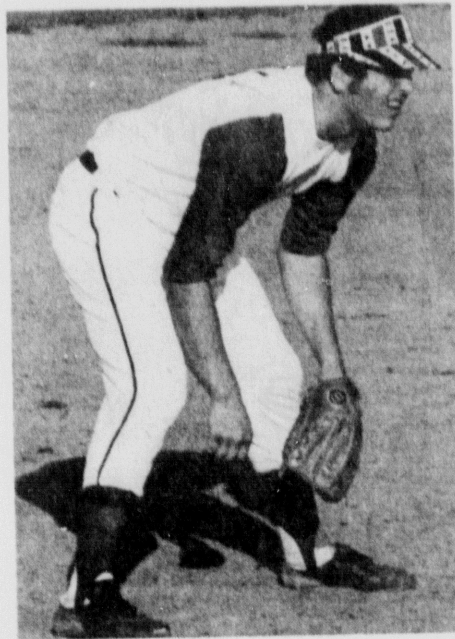

McLain: back to bushes

OAKLAND (UPI) —Pitcher Denny McLain, declaring the Oakland A's have "got me backed against the wall," announced Friday that he would return to Birmingham this weekend.

The A's sent McLain, a two time Cy Young Award winner, down to their farm club after several starts during which he was shelled by opponents.

McLain returned from Birmingham to his home in nearby Walnut Creek Thursday and said, "I'd like to have the opportunity to work out my own deal with another club—I want to pitch in the majors."

THE ATMOSPHERE is informal for games of the Senior Babe Ruth League (ages 16-18). Dogs, parents, unique uniform caps, and even some good old baseball share the stage every Monday and Wednesday at Lompoc or Cabrillo.

Elvin Hayes traded

HOUSTON (UPI) —Center Elvin Hayes, the leading scorer in the history of the Houston Rockets and one of the top players in the National Basketball Association, was traded to the Baltimore Bullets Friday night for forward Jack Marin and undisclosed future considerations.

President Ray Patterson said the considerations had not been determined and they could be either draft choices, existing players or cash.

The 6-9 Hayes, who averaged 27.4 points a game in his four years with the Rockets, became expendable when Houston acquired 6-11 Otto Moore from the Phoenix Suns last spring. Marin was expected to move to forward next year with Moore playing center.

The 6-6 1-2 Marin is one of the best forwards in the NBA, Patterson said. He has an 18.7 point average for his six years in the league, including a high of 22.3 last season.

Jamieson leads Western

NORTHBROOK, Ill. (UPI)— Jim Jamieson, a carefree fat man looking for his first victory on the professional golf tour, shot a four-under-par 67 Friday to take a two-stroke lead after the second round of the Western Open.

Jamieson, a former Illinois amateur champion whose fans made up much of the gallery, survived treacherous late afternoon winds that led to his only two bogeys in posting his second successive subpar round and a 36 hole score of 135.

Doug Sanders, wearing thermal underwear to ward off the morning chill, moved into second place with a five-under par 66 and a 137 total. J.C. Snead, who shot 67 Friday, was third at 138.

Jamieson opened a three stroke lead on the field midway through his round, scoring birdies on five of the first 10 holes, but when the wind kicked up late in the day it turned the course into a monster and he had all he could do to stay on top.

Over the final eight holes, Jamieson made two bogeys, driving into tree trouble at No. 13 and three-putting from the fringe at No. 18. Three times he scrambled to save pars on putts of 7, 8 and 10 feet.

R. H. Sikes, who was tied with Jamieson for the first round lead, skidded to a 71 Friday and was in fourth place at 139.

Hale Irwin and Steve Oppermann were the only others to finish under par for 36 holes at Sunset Ridge Country Club, a 6,716-yard layout the pros consider easy in mild weather. They had identical scores of 69-72—141.

A large group at 142, even par, was headed by Johnny Miller, who shot a 66 Friday, while Tommy Aaron, whose 65 was the day's best round, had 143. Aaron wore two sweaters and two pairs of trousers.

Los Alimitos drug bust

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A trainer and two grooms have been arrested on charges of conspiring to affect the outcome of quarter horse races at Los Alimitos.

Taken into custody were trainer Vern Anderson, 28, La Habra, and grooms William Adair, 27, Santa Paula, and Pauline Koll, 21, Santa Ana.

The arrests came after tests detected the stimulant apomorphine in Pocket Rocket which wor Monday night's second race, paying $4.20.

The three will be arraigned June 30.

Ladd's long term contract

HOUSTON (UPI) —General Manager John Breen of the Houston Oilers said Friday Ernie Ladd was the highest paid lineman in football history and will be paid by the team for another 17 years.

Ladd, now a professional wrestler, said he was earning $57,000 a year and that he will receive Oiler paychecks until 1989.

"But you must remember his signing (1966) took place when the war (between the American and National football leagues) was on," Breen said. "Most big contracts at that time were spread over long periods of time in deferred payments."

Ladd played out his option with the San Diego Chargers and signed with Houston in 1966. He was traded to Kansas City after the 1967 season. He hasn't given the total figure for his contract but said the Oilers still owe him several hundred thousand dollars.

Ladd took four losses before being dropped from the starting rotation. McLain also told newsmen that he was trying to contact A's owner Charles O. Finley because "it's obvious he calls all the shots around here."

"In all due respect, he's got the money in the ball club. I'm trying to get hold of him and, if a trade can be worked out, if they don't want me here, I'll be glad to go somewhere else."

Finley was reported to be in Memphis on business concerning his recent purchase of the American Basketball Association Pros.

World's tallest magician

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

POSTER CITY, Calif. — (NEA)—Jerry Lucas will in short order become the tallest magician on record.

Back in Middletown, Ohio, Jerry was a shy kid who spurted mordinately to the height of six feet eight inches at the age of 14, and stopped abruptly.

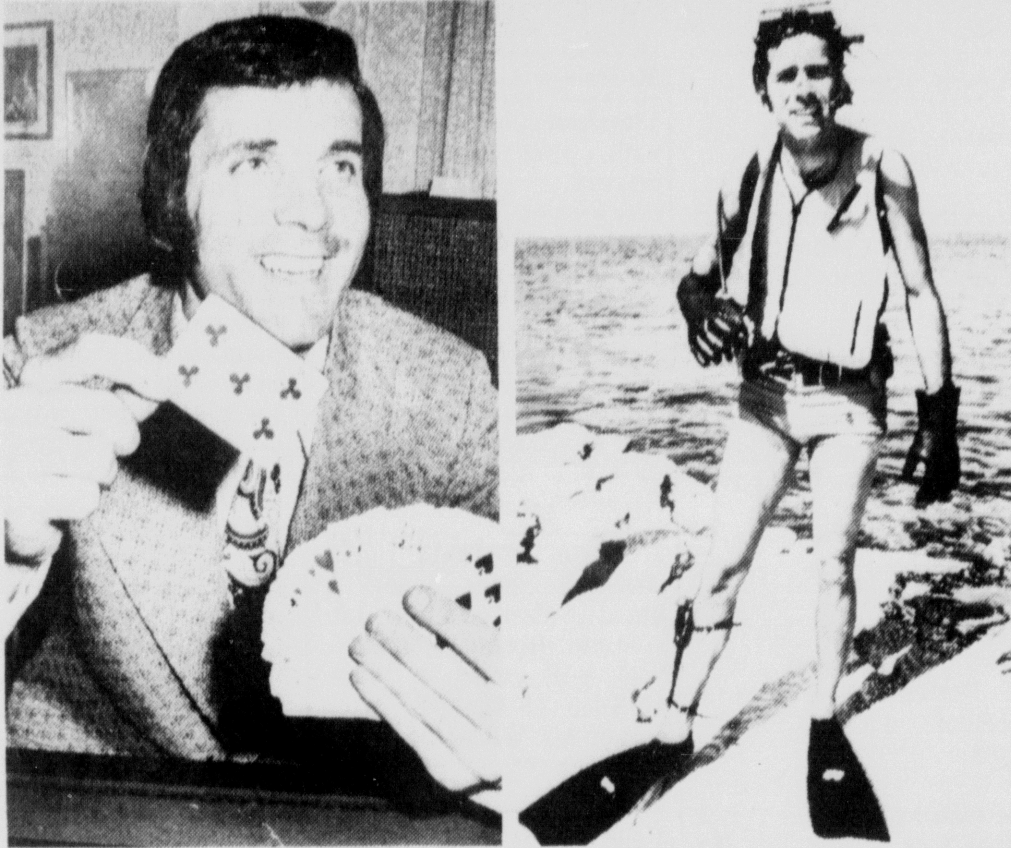

There he met Hawkeye Harvey, who was in the trucking business. Hawkeye was an amateur magician who flipped card tricks. Jerry was an attentive audience, and when he got out of high school Hawkeye was ready to show him the invisible deck trick. Jerry pulls it often.

He extends an invisible deck. You draw an imaginary card from it. "Put it back," orders Jerry, stretching out the pantomime. "Upside down." You then tell him what the make-believe card is. Jerry pulls a real deck from his inside coat pocket and spreads it out, face up. Only one card is reversed. That's the card you named. It never fails.

Of course, Jerry's magical talents were always dwarfed by his ability as a basketball player—from the best high school player in the nation, to the best collegian in the nation (at Ohio State), to a pro career approaching its 10th year and in its most rewarding phase.

He was traded to the New York Knicks a year ago, and through an injury to Willis Reed was thrust into the vital pivot role on a team which reached the NBA championship finals.

"New York is the best place in the world to play basketball," he says. "The fans are the most sophisticated. It's fun to play in front of a crowd like that. The way the Knicks play basketball is the way it should be played. I had al-

JERRY LUCAS doesn't have any trouble finding things to do when he is not playing pro basketball. The New York Knicks' 6-8 center is an accomplished magician, specializing in memory and card tricks, and is planning a new television magic show for children. And he also tried his fins at snorkeling recently.

ways wanted to play center in the NBA, but I was never thought of as a center because I'm 6-8."

New York also gave him exposure—two appearances on the Johnny Carson show, where the other facets of Jerry, his interest in magic and memory tricks, were revealed.

"They were my hobby for 20 years," he says, "but for 10 of those years not a soul knew about it. I was very withdrawn and shy."

One night at a party in college the kids were watching television, and Professor Backwards was on, spelling words in reverse.

"I can do better than that," Jerry announced solemnly. Give him a word or name and he would put its component letters in alphabetical order as fast as the person could say the word. For example: "example" is "aelmpx."

Jerry also used to sit in the back of the family car on trips and count the painted dividing stripes on highways. Kansas, he says, is the most economical state. It has 108 broken stripes per mile. The norm is 132. California splatters the most, 208 stripes per mile. He started memorizing phone books to while away dead time on pro basketball road trips. He almost had the San Mateo, Calif., phone book memorized when he was traded to the Knicks.

Now he has memorized the first column on each of the first 500 pages of the Manhattan (New York) phone book. He is in the process of memorizing "The Godfather," which he read on a road trip.

Jerry also claims a couple of records which aren't in the Guinness Book of Records. At the age of 16, in Middletown, he once caddied the same twosome for 144 holes of golf in a single day. Every hole was putted out. Jerry carried a full bag of clubs, from 5 a.m. to 9 p.m. The eight full rounds amounted to 35 miles of walking. He went the last four rounds barefoot.

"I also hold the milk guzzling championship of the world," he claims. "Guinness says the record is 9 seconds for guzzling a quart of milk. When I was a kid, I started out guzzling and got it down to 6 seconds."

But his passion is magic. He's seriously projecting it as a lifetime vocation when his basketball is finished. He's 32 and there isn't much longer to go to support lovely Treva and their two children.

"This is what I want to do," he says. "No one has taken magic and used it to educate youngsters. My approach is mental, not physical tricks. I've researched the field by reading many books. I've spent the past year creating new things. I'm on the verge of a major breakthrough in magic."

In the planning stage is a regular TV series which he would host.

"I could take card tricks," he says, "and teach kids the mathematical concepts involved while entertaining them. I do it with my own son, Jeff, who's 7. He already spells alphabetically—those words he can spell."

How about the stage presence of this onetime gangly, shy Ohioan?

"Oh, that's fine. I'm a ham. We're an unusual family. My great-grandfather Eli Lucas from Kentucky had 36 children."

Warriors get Rick Barry on rebound

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A federal judge Friday ordered Rick Barry to honor a five-year $1 million contract signed with the Golden State Warriors of the National Basketball Association in October 1969.

District Judge Alfonso Zirpoli granted an injunction barring the scoring ace of the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association from playing for any other club until the contract runs out in 1974.

"Unless Barry is enjoined from playing for the New York Nets or any other professional team, San Francisco will suffer irreparable and permanent injuries," the judge ruled.

When the contract was signed on Oct. 2, 1969, the team was known as the San Francisco Warriors. It later changed its name to the Golden State Warriors.

Barry signed the contract when he was playing with the Oakland Oaks. He previously played with the Warriors. He took the action when the franchise was sold to a Washington, D.C. combine.

Barry later jumped to the Virginia Squares of the ABA and then signed with the Nets.

Franklin Mieuli, owner of the Warriors, sought the injunction on grounds his original contract with Barry was binding.

Pancho loses cool, booted from court

LONDON (UPI) — Pancho Gonzalez, 44-years-old and still fiery, was disqualified Friday in the semi-finals of the London Grass Courts championships at Queens Club after arguments with a linesman, the umpire and referee.

The row blew up in the sixth game of the second set with Pancho leading 7-5, 2-3 but love 40 down on service against Briton John Paish who meets Jim Connors of Belleville, Ill., in Saturday's final.

Connors beat New Yorker Clark Graebner 6-3, 6-4 in his semi-final of this major preWimbledon tournament.

In the women's singles final, 17-year-old wonder girl Chris Evert meets Australian Karen Krantzcke after beating Wendy Overton of Washington, D.C. 5-7, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Krantzcke downed fellow Aussie Pat Coleman 6-3, 6-3.

Gonzalez was a very angry man when the first three calls in the sixth game went against him and when his serve was called a fault at love-40, he shouted "that's a damn lie. I want the linesman removed."

After Gonzalez had argued in vain with umpire Frank Aris to have linesman Archie Tyler replaced, referee Mrs. Bea Seal was called to sort out the trouble.

The American gave her an ultimatum "either the linesman goes or I do" and Mrs. Seal decided on the latter.

"I scratched him. I disqualified him, it's the same thing," she said. Gonzalez complained later "I had four balls called out when the chalk flew and I have been in tennis too many years to let that kind of thing continue."

"I thought everything was settled but she (Mrs. Seal) started coming up. When I told her I didn't want her approaching me, that's what she didn't like. But she came nearer and nearer and I held her off. It was then that she signalled that the match was over," Gonzalez said.

Connors, 19, had to hold off a rally by the second-seeded Graebner before winning.

Graebner threatened to extend the issue beyond two sets when he hit two fine forehand service returns followed by a forehand down the line to get within a point of 5-5.

But two successive net cords for outright winners from the left-handed Connors took the last bit of sting from Graebner who ended the match by netting a backhand.

GAMES SCHEDULED

Cougar II big favorite at Hollypark

INGLEWOOD (UPI)—Cougar II is a solid favorite to win his second straight $125,000 Invitational Turf Handicap at Hollywood Park Saturday against a large field that also includes Typecast.

The Chilean-born Cougar II was assigned top weight of 129 pounds, including jockey Bill Shoemaker, for the mile and one half feature race over the Lakeside turf course.

Typecast, who was narrowly beaten by Convenience in a special $250,000 match race last Saturday, was assigned 117 pounds for the Invitational. He will be ridden by Jerry Lambert who was aboard Convenience in the match race.

Rounding out the field for the feature will be Violonor, Big Shot II, King Chrisy, Le Levanhot, Yellow Zorker, Hierarch II and the Sigmund Sommer entry of Golden Eagle II and Hitchcock.
